THE TERMINATOR TERMINATED

Last Words

I think the contractor must have a thing for movies, as they wanted my next target "Terminated", whatever floats their boat, it wasn't a problem.

I left the lecture we had together before Jazz, then stood chatting to a friend till he had gone by. I followed and caught up as he left the building.

Already wearing my leather jacket I spun through the double doors while whipping on my sunglasses and retrieving my knife. I then quick stepped around to his side, slashing his throat in the process.

"Hasta la Vista, Baby"

Now this was a fun kill, plus I looked good doing it! I'm starting to get into this killing thing.

I'll be back,

Artemis Entreri

43 Strikes Again

The deadly and dashing Assassin known only as 43 has struck again! The latest victim is the merciless Artemis Entreri, who was found dead outside a physics seminar with four bullet wounds in their back.

Is this the last we'll hear from him?

Will he be back?
